J. W. Searles Says He's Holding Confirms Herald Statement as to Contract For Tabernacle Choir's Property For Children.

States That His Wife Got Only $13,-000, Not $72,000 From the Dyer Estate—Real Property Was All Her Own and Didn't Come Through Executors.

J. W. Searles, who, according to the will of the late Mrs. Ella F. Searles, becomes the guardian of her three chil-dren by a former marriage, while Judge Henry P. Henderson is acting in that capacity according to a will left by the children's father, Frank H. Dyer, bjects to the statements made by Judge Henderson in regard to the guardianship matter, as well as to the in-timation that Mrs. Searles' property timation that Mrs. Searles' property has been wasied.

Mr. Searles said yesterday: "I am perfectly willing that Judge Henderson should have the children. I am willing to waive all rights to them, and told him so. I have been appointed trustee of Mrs. Searles' property, to take care of it for the children, and I will do this. I offered to allow Judge Henderson to have the children, but he doesn't want them. Furthermore, they don't want to go to him."

Mr. Searles says that Judge Henderson has never been the guardian of the persons of the children; that he has himself had charge of them for the last six years, though not of their estate.

"The judge has never schooled the chil."

last six years, though not of their estate.

"The judge has never schooled the children, except Frank, and he only allowed him to be sent away to college after repeated rows."

Frank H. Dyer, the 15-year-old son, said last night: "Mr. Searles has been a good father to me and my sisters, and always kind to my mother. What my mother had and disposed of was a pleasure to her. Anyway, I can't see how it becomes Judge Henderson's affair what my mother did with her own property."

Has Been No Waste.

Has Been No Waste.

In regard to the statement that nearly all the property left by Frank H. Dyer had disappeared, Mr. Searles said: "Of the $15.505—the total amount which Mrs. Searles received from the executors, not $72.000 as stated by Judge Henderson—$4.575 was used to pay debts that ought to have been paid out of the estate. This left $5.150, which is only $1,715.31 more than Judge Henderson drew from the estate for lawyers' and other expenses. Of this $4.75 Mrs. Searles paid $2.500 for a menument to her late husband, and $1.55 was spent on the children."

Mr. Searles says that the balance of the property, which is now in his hands as trustee for the children, is real estate, which was always held in Mrs. Searles name. It was always held in Mrs. Searles made. It was always he property," he said. "If Judge Henderson talks of demanding an accounting, I think I shall file a similar demand. He has only rendered one statement regarding the condition of the estate in six years, and that one two years ago." Going back to the subject of the guardianship, Mr. Searles said:

"The children have been in my care for six years, and I believe have grown sincerely attached to me. It was their mother's request that they should remain with me. I am willing to make any arrangement for them that is reisonable, and I have told Judge Henderson so. I made the same proposition through Abe Dyer, Mr. Dyer's brother.

all."

Mr. Searles says that he does not want to see the children's property involved in any expensive litigation that will waste it, but that he wants to see their rights protected. He refers to the statement that there is but $30,000 left of their money, and says that Judge Henderson himself valued Frank Dyer's estate at over $30,000, although it only inventoried $145,000.

Proposed Bond Reduction From $4,-550,000 to $3,000,000-President Thinks Conclusions Reached Will Be Approved By the Directors.

President George Q. Cannon reached home from New York yesterday, looking and feeling well. When asked last night as to the results of the meetings held in New York concerning the night as to the results of the meetings held in New York concerning the Union Light & Power company affairs, of which company he is president, he stated that he could say nothing about the result of the negotiations at present, except that they had reached conclusions that he hoped would be approved by the directors.

President Cannon confirmed the accuracy of the statements already published in The Heraid to the effect that the object of the negotiations was, first, to reduce the bonded indebtedness, second, to reduce the interest and to keep the fixed charges so much within the income as to allow betterments—in other words to create a reserve fund.

The present indebtedness of the company, as stated in The Heraid article, which President Cannon confirms, is $4,530,000, and the negotiations were to scale this down to $4,000,000, and to reduce the interest from 6 to 4 per cent, which would mean a saving to the company of about $152,000 a year.

One of the directors gaves it as his opinion yesterday that the negotiations had reached a stage where it has been decided to reduce the bonded indebtedness and said that the only question was as to the method to be employed. It is anticipated that some definite action will be at approval of the work done by President Cannon.

siderable hard cash, he believed it, would be a paying venture. He figures that the performances should average $1,000 each or $14,000 in all. From this must be deducted the expenses, which will, in round figures, be in the neighborhood of $500 per performance.

This would leave a net profit of $17,000, of which $6 per cent goes to the promoter and his associates, 10 per cent to the soloists and 20 per cent to the soloists and 20 per cent to the soloists and 20 per cent to the soloists and some money in pocket, in addition to having a delightful trip. On the success of the venture depends a journey to the Paris exposition and a tour of Europe. This will occur next year, should the result of the coming trip justify it. The missing man was five feet seven inches in height, 40 years old, dark complexioned, dark moustache. He wore a soft felt hat, dark coat and yest and blue overalls. He was hard of hearing, and for this reason it is feared he has met with a fatal accident. He leaves a wife and family.

Acting Governor Hammond was reminded of this new condition, distinguishing last year's war enthusiasm, by receiving a query from $\sigma_0$ Castle Gate young men, asking if the state would bear the expense of travel to this city or place of enlistment.
